A Car-Fare Romance.

"I want a beer and I don't want it," said a seamy-looking young fellow to a barkeeper in a small Dodge-street saloon last night. "Here's the last nickel I've got in the world, but that isn't why I hate to give it up. That nickel ruined me."

"It did?" queried the barkeeper, incredulously.

"Yes, it did; or rather a girl that owed it did. Don't ask me what her name was, for I never knew. It was three years ago, and I had then a $45 job in one of the railway offices. One day I met this girl in a Red-line street car—a glorious being she was, and was I dead gone the minute I saw her. When she passed up the fare I was so nervous that I dropped the nickel, for her finger tips touched mine and a big thrill slid all the way up to the end of my hair and nearly raised my hat off I made some apology for my clumsiness, which gave me a chance to hear her speak. Then I fished up this nickel from the floor, but slyly kept it myself and put in one of my own. Well, I watched that girl as far as I could see her, and I didn't know enough to get off the car until it reached the stable. Every day after that I spent all the time I could in riding up and down in the Red-line cars, but I never saw her again. Pretty soon I was bounced from my job for being absent-minded and making mistakes. I didn't care until I found I was half-starved. Then I got reckless and joined a circus. When the season was over I tramped it. I'm tramping still. Well, with a sigh, 'give us a beer and take the nickel.'"

After he had emptied the glass and gone out a bystander asked the barkeeper to let him see that historic coin. A second glance showed that it was a counterfeit.

"I wonder," said the barkeeper, "what sort of a girl that was—or did he lie?" [Omaha Herald.]

The St. Louis Democrat asks, "Why should we not do away with the Electoral College and elect our Presidents by a popular vote?" There is no good reason why should this not be done. The invention of electors serves to defeat rather than carry out the popular will; and besides makes an opening for fraud—as in '76—where otherwise would not exist. [Covington Commonwealth.]

CURE FOR PILES.

Piles are frequently preceded by a sense of weight in the back, loins and lower part of the abdomen, causing the patient to suppose he has some affection of the kidneys or neighboring organs. At times, symptoms of indigestion are present, as flatulency, uneasiness of the stomach, etc. A moisture, like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable itching, after getting warm, is a very common attendant. Blind, bleeding and itching Piles yield at once to the application of Dr. Bosanko's Pile Remedy, which acts directly upon the parts affected, absorbing the Tumors, allaying the intense itching and affording a permanent cure. Price 50 cents. Address Dr. Bosanko Medicine Co., Piquette, Ohio. Sold by McRoberts & Stagg.

HUSTONVILLE, LINCOLN COUNTY.

—John D. and T. L. Carpenter sold to Mr. Gentry, agent for the Lehman Bros., of New York, 75 head of cattle in two lots, one averaging 1,600 pounds at 5¢ cents, the other 1,700 pounds at 6¢ cents. The cattle go direct to New York for immediate shipment to England. The Londoners will be pleased to receive my assurance that although denizens of the land whose biggest and brightest boast is their traditional roast beef, they may now enjoy a luxury which their fathers only dreamed of—the rhythmic sweetness and poetical richness of real beef.

—It is exceedingly difficult in these stirring times to write anything as new as a day or two in advance of publication day. For instance I may state in all candor now that our people of every shade of sentiment are taking the election quietly and yet before the morning of Friday we may be shaken by the throes of a political and social earthquake. But we no not anticipate anything of the kind. Our people are generally cool, quiet and law-abiding. Our colored population is noted as one of the most orderly in the State and we are all trained to take the dictum of the ballot box—when legitimately obtained—as the end of controversy. Hence we rest quietly while the storm is raging elsewhere.

—Will R. Williams exhibits his card as passenger agent for the St. Louis Air Line. Those looking to the West for homes have only to call on Billy and the terrors and toils of travel are dissipated as if by magic. The idea of privations, fatigue, accident, expense is shown to be unreal "as the baseless fabric of a vision." While mentioning the names of individuals I may state that R. Carson has set up his patriarchal tent among us, having rented from Thomas Cecil the old Cooper Hotel. Cecil, whose multifarious avocations preclude the possibility of keeping house, will board with him. I think Rans is a fixture new. Being probably the oldest member of the Presbyterian church in the county, he has dropped into one of the oldest congregations and found a home where in his age he found a blooming bride.

—The Presbyterians are busy trying to fill the vacancy created in their pulpit by the resignation of Rev. I. S. McElroy. They have already taken their usual initiatory step by electing an additional batch of officers. I trust they will not stop at this. Let these officers consider their vows of consecration to the work. Let them study the ancient records of their congregation, especially let them note the promptitude of attendance of those stalwart office-bearers of the olden time and the motto emblazoned on their banner "we will do right though the heavens fall" and we may confidently look forward to better days. The prospect now is that they will secure the services of Rev. Mr. Allen of the Northern Assembly, who has been here and seems to have made a good impression. Our town comprises four large and some of them wealthy congregations with three excellent church buildings and yet about one service in the month in each seems to meet all the wants of Time and furnish sufficient preparation for Eternity.

A queer marriage custom prevail among the exiles in Siberia. If a man wishes to get married he applies to the governor, who selects one of the female prisoners, with whom the matrimonial candidate is expected to "keep company" for two or three days. If at the conclusion of this term the male party declares that the lady selected is not to his mind, he receives twenty-five blows with a stick, and another bride is chosen for him—and so on. In most countries the candidate for matrimony doesn't receive the blows with a stick until sometime after he is married. We don't know but what the Siberian plan has the advantage. [Norristown Herald.]

THE COST OF IT.—Probably no report of the cost of the republican campaign will ever be made public. An estimate made in Washington a few days ago put the cost of carrying the State of Ohio $1,600,000, and expenses in the Maine campaign at $600,000. An enormous sum was afterward scattered over the Union to affect the general election, and probably not less than half a million were expended for the bribing of votes. A share of this vast corruption fund was obtained from the manufacturers favored by Blaine's high tariff, and Mr. Blaine's presence at the Delmonico dinner shows what class of men the rest of it came from. [Chicago Times.]

OLD AND FRUITFUL.—Mrs. Rebecca Hunnicutt, of Franklin county, Alabama, is ninety-one years, old has twenty-one living children, one hundred and five grandchildren, one hundred and forty-six great-grandchildren and eleven great-great-grandchildren, making a total of three hundred and three descendants. The grand old woman reads without spectacles and in evidence of the tenacity with which her people cling to life, it may be added that in twenty-five years only one adult and seven children of her numerous progeny have died. [The Capital.]

The effect of cocaine, the new anesthetic upon the eye, is to produce insensibility to pain. A drop is put on the eyeball, and within a short time the surgeon is able to perform, without hurting the patient, what would otherwise be the most agonizing operation. The drug has been "cornered" and the small quantity in the country is held at $8,000 per pound.

FREE DISTRIBUTION.

"What causes the great rush at McRoberts & Stagg's Drug Store?" The free distribution of sample bottles of Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung Syrup, the most popular remedy for Coughs, Colds, Consumption and Bronchitis upon the market. Regular size 50 cents and $1.00.

HOW THEY MAKE PUTTY.—The process of making putty is a very simple one. The principal ingredients are raw linseed oil and whiting. Marble dust is mixed with the whiting, and as it is much cheaper it reduces the cost of the putty. Paraffine oils are used to a great extent instead of linseed, and as the former is the cheaper and inferior oil of the two, the result is to make an inferior article. To knead it, it is put in a chaser—an annular-shaped trough from the centre of which rises a vertical shaft. From this shaft two arms extend, on the ends of which are heavy iron wheels that rest on the trough. When the shaft revolves the wheels chase each other around the trough. The wholesale price of putty is about two cents per pound.

It is related that a certain German maid once presided at a mineral water fountain at which there were only two kinds of syrup—vanilla and lemon. To her came a young man who said: "I want a glass of soda without syrup." "Ja," replied Katrina, "boot vot kind of strop you vant him mitout—mitout vanilla or mitout lemon?"

Twenty-three years ago two Kentucky boys were marching together in the same regiment with a musket on their shoulders, and receiving $13 per month in Confederate funds. One of them will represent the grand old First district of Kentucky and the other the Second district of Kentucky in the next Congress of the United States. [Kentucky Telephone.]

A novel experiment of carrying a railroad through a forest has been tried in Sonoma county, California. The trees are sawed off and leveled and the ties are fastened on the stumps, two of which are huge redwoods standing side by side and reaching seventy-five feet from the ground. So firm is this support that heavily loaded cars pass over with perfect security.

Positive Cure for Piles.

To the people of this county we would say that we have been given the agency of Dr. Marchisi's Italian Pile Ointment—emphatically guaranteed to cure or money refunded—Internal, External, Blind, Bleeding or Itching Piles. Price 50 cents a box. No cure, no pay. Penny & McAllister, Druggists.

Daughters, Wives and Mothers.

We emphatically guarantee Dr. Marchisi's Cathartic, a female remedy, to cure Female Diseases, such as Ovarian troubles, Inflammation and Ulceration, Falling and displacement or bearing down feeling, Irregularities, Barrenness, Change of Life, Leucorrhoea, besides many weaknesses springing from the above, like Headache, Bloating, Spinal Weakness, Sleeplessness, Nervous debility, Palpitation of the Heart, &c. For sale by druggists. Price $1 and $1.50 per bottle. Send to Dr. Marchisi, Utica, N. Y., for pamphlet, free. For sale by Penny & McAllister, Druggists.

JUST AS GOOD.

Many unscrupulous dealers may tell you they have remedies for Coughs and Colds equal in merit and in every respect just as good as the old reliable Dr. Bosanko Cough and Lung Syrup, unless you insist upon this remedy and will take no other, you are liable to be greatly deceived. Prices, 50 cents and $1.00. Sold by McRoberts & Stagg.

W. P. WALTON.

The Springfield Republican says: "The republicans must give it up. Grover Cleveland is elected the next President of the United States and will be inaugurated on the 4th of March next. The candidate and campaign of falsehood fall together in mutual ruin. The grand old party—we use the words in no satiric sense—which has governed the country for twenty four years, saving the Union, freeing the slave and retrieving financial disaster, goes down, not in honor and honorable defeat, but in disgrace and behind a corrupt, venal and shiftless leader. It fell when it nominated Blaine and before a vote had been cast. When it ran up his name to the mast head it insulted the honesty and decency of the country; it mistook the whoop of the Chicago mob for the honest convictions and the sober character of the people of the United States. By the same act it both necessitated and it defied revolution—and revolution has come."

The St. Louis Globe Democrat, which is not a democratic paper by any means, says of the candidate it worked so hard to elect: "He proved a deadhead in the enterprise of carrying the country." "For President in 1888—Some Man Who Hasn't Written Any Letters." "Mr. Blaine should have burned those letters himself, instead of asking another fellow to do it." "The trouble began by Blaine's designation of Conkling as a turkey gobbler twenty years ago. We presume the returns mean that Conkling is not a turkey gobbler." "We believe it was Martin Van Buren who said he would rather walk twenty miles than write a letter. If Mr. Blaine had taken more walks and written fewer letters he might have been elected." "In re 'Tell the Truth' vs. 'Burn this Letter,' verdict for plaintiff."

It seems that the good news that we were to have a solid democratic representation in Congress from this State, was not altogether true. Wadsworth, republican, is said to have defeated Powers in the 9th by 102 votes. The other ten are all dyed in the wool democrats, who submit always to the manners and customs of their party. W. P. Taulbee has 2,500 majority in White's district; McCrory has fully as much as this; Stone carries Oscar Turner clean out of sight and Gen. Wolford goes back with over a 1,000 majority.

There has never been any real doubt about the result of the election in New York since the next day after it occurred. The newspapers had arrangements in every county and by the time the polls were closed their correspondents were in possession of the figures which showed Cleveland an ample plurality. The republicans deserve and will receive the severest execrations of the business men all over the country for their efforts to create doubts and unsettle the commercial condition.

SEN. BUTLER has proved himself the meanest man in the United States. After taking part in the democratic national committee, he not only accepts the nomination of another so-called party but conspires with the democracy's archest enemy, Blaine, to defeat the will of the people. This was supposed all the time and he now admits that his effort was alone to elect Blaine. But the old coward got most ignominiously set down upon.

THE official canvass of the vote in New York began Tuesday and the result announced in 44 counties up to Thursday showed less than a change of 10 from democratic figures. Thursday's papers said that there were rumors in New York city yesterday to the effect that the republicans had given up the fight. Practically this is true, though the party is represented by counsel at the City Hall.

WHEN the New York republican managers found that Cleveland had carried that State, they telegraphed to Mahone: "We need Virginia for our salvation, and perhaps West Virginia. Can't you help us?" Mahone at once telegraphed to his lieutenants in certain counties to hold back returns till further orders. Thus do the rascals conspire together to defeat the expressed will of the people.

GEN. LOGAN's saliva seems to have dried up since the election. He has not spit in a man's face for a month, at least the telegraph has not reported to that effect. Having got so badly left for Vice President and lost his show for a return to the Senate, it would seem that he ought to be mad enough to spit fire.

It is claimed in some quarters that the new Congress will hardly elect Carlisle speaker, but that Randall will once more be given the gavel. The New York Herald shows however that the Kentucky revenue reformer has the inside track and will more than probable retain his position.

PATTIE, the sweetest of singers, has at last obtained a divorce from her husband. She has been living with her tenor, Niccolini, for years as his wife and now, after the manner of Blaine, charges that she was secretly married to him long ago. Pattie is far from being as virtuous as she is pretentious.

DANIEL MANNING, the King Bee of New York democrats and Cleveland's most trusted lieutenant, having accomplished his ends, will turn his attention to matrimonial affairs and will next week lead to the altar a bride. He deserves the best and sweetest in the Empire State.

GEN. GRANT not wishing to put himself on record as a supporter of the Plumed Knight, conveniently forgot to register and couldn't vote.

THE cock has been used by Democratic newspapers the morning after elections for forty years. It is essentially a democratic bird, having been first used when the democrats crowded over the defeat of Clay by Polk.

No Doubt About Cleveland Now. LOUISVILLE, Nov. 13.—The Times has a dispatch saying that at 2 p. m. all but 12 counties of the State have reported the result of the official canvass. They show a net gain of 9 for Cleveland. This does not include New York and Kings counties. The total vote of Brooklyn, as officially announced to-day, gives Cleveland a plurality of 15,762, being a gain of 6 for Cleveland. The count may not be completed this week.

ELECTION NOTES.

—Gov. Gray's official majority in Indiana is 7,296.

—Frank Hurd will contest the election of his opponent.

—The official democratic majority in Florida is 4,144.

—The democrats made a gain of 16,000 votes in Wisconsin.

—The report that Mr. Cleveland is to be married soon is denied.

—St. John ran ahead of Butler in New York about 5,000 votes.

—New Hampshire gave Blaine 1,875 majority and 4,000 plurality.

—Returns from every county in Oregon give Blaine 2,100 majority.

—The official vote of Mississippi gives Cleveland 78,547, Blaine 42,774.

—It is not so bad in California as first reported. She will send one democrat to Congress.

—In Illinois Blaine has 25,116 plurality; Kansas about 60,000 and some 55,000 in Minnesota.

—It is said that $10,000,000 will change hands in New York City alone upon the result of the election.

—Mr. Conkling says "Cleveland is elected beyond all doubt, and his friends need have no apprehension of the result."

—The democrats have elected but one Congressman West of the Rocky Mountains and that one is Henry, of the First California district.

—Blaine's plurality in Pennsylvania is 80,553, but Cleveland sees that and goes 25,000 more in Texas, his plurality there being over 105,000.

—The official vote in Casey county shows a majority of five for the national democratic ticket. For Congress, Wolford, democrat, received 775, and Jones, republican, 743.

—Hon. Roscoe Conkling has consented to act as counsel for the democratic national and State committees in any question that may arise in relation to the pending canvass. It is reported on republican authority that his pay is $10,000.

—Ex-Senator McDonald denounces as false the interview purporting to have been held with him Monday, in which he was made to say the democrats were too premature on claiming a victory, and intimating a weakness of backbone on his part.

—Blaine's net gain in 45 counties in New York over the unofficial count is exactly 8. If there were enough counties he might get there in the course of time, says the Louisville Commercial. There are but 60 counties, though, so he won't get there.

—Carter Harrison is defeated for Governor of Illinois by Gen. Oglesby, (both ex-Kentuckians) but he reduced the majority greatly. He is only defeated by 5,000, while Cleveland loses the State by 18,000. Harrison, who was a great champion of Cleveland's nomination, is likely to be one of the President's favorites.

—Mr. McPherson, Secretary of the republican Congressional committee, says, for the most authentic information he has been able to secure, the next House of representatives will consist of 182 democrats, 141 republicans, 1 Greenbacker (Barnum of Pennsylvania) and one Fusionist (Weaver of Iowa). Democratic majority over all thirty-nine.

—Benjamin F. Butler was born in 1818, and after a long and disreputable career, died politically on the 4th day of November, 1884. His present dilapidated condition reminds us of a remark made by an ancient dame when gazing upon her dead husband. "Old man," said she, "you look bad now, but I'll be darned if you haven't been a hose in your day!"—(C. J.)

—The Courier Journal suggests the following slate of cabinet officers: Secretary of State Allen G. Thurman, Ohio; Secretary of the Treasury William Drexler, New York; Secretary of War Geo. B. McClellan, New Jersey; Secretary of the Navy Samuel J. Randall, Pennsylvania; Secretary of the Interior Frank Jones, Louisiana; Postmaster General Eppa Hunton, Virginia; Attorney General Joseph E. McDonald, Indiana.

—At Masonheimer's Restaurant, opposite the Court House, Danville, Ky., meals are served at all hours. Game always on hand and in its season, Oysters, fresh fish, and similar delicacies served in all styles and on short notice. Look out for the sign "Woodbine Restaurant" and call when you are hungry. F. W. Masonheimer & Co., Danville, Ky.

—The exhibition of trained animals ect., by the Andrea Novelty company at the Opera House Wednesday night surpassed anything of the kind ever before seen in Danville. The feats performed by the birds seemed to indicate almost human intelligence, while the tricks in magic and juggling by Messrs. Andrea and De Camo are certainly first-class. The performances are to be resumed Friday and Saturday nights, none being given Thursday night on account of the celebration. A great many useful presents are given away each night.

Gath says it was Burchard, with his "Rum Romanism and Rebellion;" Halstead says it was Arthur; Whitelaw Reid says it was the Prohibitionists; Carl Schurz says it was his $200 speeches. The fact is, after all, it was the democrats, aided and abetted by the Independents, who did it.—[Indiana Police Times.]

A New York business man says, "It is hard to tell as yet what will be the effect on business. There has been a general stagnation for some months past and it would seem as though any change must be for the better. I don't, however, look for much revival during the present year. It will take some time for things to quiet down."

"I Don't Feel Like Work."

It makes no difference what business you are engaged in; whether you are a preacher, a merchant, a mechanic, a lawyer or a common laborer, you can't do your work well while you are half sick. Thousands try to, but all in vain. How much better to keep your organs in good order by taking Parker's Tonic when you feel "a little out of sorts." It would be money in your pocket. One hour of good, refreshing health is worth half a dozen hours full of languor and pain.

The Buell stock is tanned by the old-fashioned long time cold liquor process, thereby producing soft and pleasant wearing material. Any method that will tan stock in ten to thirty days in order to make it cheap will unavoidably destroy its life, and when the oil used in dressing evaporates the leather becomes hard and brittle. A single thought should convince you that notwithstanding the difference in price, you can better afford to buy BUELL'S BOOTS AND SHOES.

LOCAL MATTERS.

FRESH FISH always on hand. J. T. Harris.

COME and see the Exposition Lamp on exhibition at Bright & Curran's.

We have been enjoying for a week the most delightful spell of weather ever experienced in November.

JUST IN.—A big line of Heating Stoves and Grates and "cheaper than the cheapest," at Bright & Curran's.

THE Court of Appeals has over ruled the petitions for rehearing in the four cases against the L. & N. from this county.

We figure Gov. James B. McCreary's majority in the district at 2,292, which is more than double Knott's and two and a half times greater than Thompson's. The Gov. is a runner and don't you forget it.

THE next attraction at the Opera House will be Miss Bella Moore in "The Mountain Pink" and if half we hear of her be true it will prove the greatest attraction ever presented here. Monday night, Nov. 24.

THE saw mill belonging to Ben. B. King, 34 miles from Hustonville, was burned Tuesday night by the carelessness of his employees. No insurance. Loss about $2,000. As King is a good republican there is no suspicion of foul play.

MRS. MARTHA, wife of John Baugh and daughter of John Young, died at Highland Wednesday, of a womb trouble, aged 26 years. She was a member of the Christian church and a pious, good woman. One child is left to feel alone a mother's loss.

THE magistrates met with the county judge yesterday and ordered that the previous order fixing Nov. 15th as the day to hold the election on the railroad question be rescinded. So no election will be held. It was done on the request of E. Zimmerman, president of the Chesapeake & Nashville railroad.

THE great closing out sale at J. W. Hayden's is attracting patronage from all parts of the county and from adjoining counties. Mr. Hayden has always dealt in a fine class of goods adapted to the best class of trade, and the opportunity is offered persons with the cash to buy really first class goods at or below the price asked for inferior brands.

FOUND DEAD.—Mr. E. H. Smith, who lived just over the Garrard line, was found dead in bed at his home last Friday morning. He had been a sufferer from heart disease and it is supposed his death was caused by it. He was a good citizen and his seven children will feel his loss. His age was 63 years. This item was intended for last issue but was mislaid.

ACCIDENTS.—Mrs. Will Craig received a telegram from her husband stating that Mr. Mr. J. N. Craig fell between the cars at Washington and was badly hurt. Mr. George W. Alford had one from Montgomery telling him to return at once that Joe Hutchinson, formerly of this section, had been thrown from a runaway horse on a barbed wire fence and was in a dangerous condition. Mr. Hutchinson has been managing Mr. Alford's livery stable in Montgomery.

CIRCUIT COURT.—John Nordyke was given three months on the rock pile for grand larceny. Jeff Hale for maliciously shooting the horse of Peter Gill, forfeited the $100 in money that he put up as bail for his appearance, but the court tried him all the same and fined him $35 and costs. So he loses his $100 and will have to go to jail or pay the other if he is ever caught. John Jones, for burglary, was acquitted on peremptory instructions. The court will probably adjourn finally to day.

H. C. RUPLEY, the merchant tailor, has on hand a very fine line of suitings. Call at once and examine.

PLEASE call at Bright & Curran's where our books are kept and settle your coal account. We need the money. I. M. Bruce.

We want all those indebted to us for meat, coal and lumber to come and pay us now at we need the money to buy hogs. Williams & Ramsey.

We invite attention to our new stock of Glassware and Queensware, new styles and designs. Come and get our prices and we know that we will save you money. S. S. Myers & Co.

For sale cheap, Dederick Hay Press, best made, good as new, can be run with either steam or horse power. Address Wm. Gooch, Gilbert's Creek, Ky., or call on or address Geo. D. Warren, Stanford, Ky.

The report current here yesterday that two negroes caught in the act of firing a house at Winchester were hung on the spot turns out to be untrue. Neither did Whit Montgomery kill two with one shot on the premises Tuesday night. He heard a noise and fired in its direction, that was all.

DEATH.—Dr. O. S. Lambert, formerly located at King's Mountain in this county, where he married Miss Nannie Searcy, died at East Bernstadt this week, after a few days illness of flux. He leaves a wife and one child. The remains were taken to Covington for burial. Dr. Lambert was about 40 years of age and a clever, honorable gentleman.

THE trial of James Wilson, charged with house breaking, resulted in his acquittal and he may thank his pretty, modest little wife for it, for the evidence was dead against him, the goods being found in his house. Wilson has been in jail ever since last March and his wife deserted by her family and friends for marrying him, had been reduced almost to want, her condition rendering her unable to work. The court appointed Col. W. G. Welch and Jos. B. Paxton to defend him, but when the young woman appeared and with tearful eyes told the Colonel that she was without money, with no clothes but those she had on and of her certainty almost of starvation if her husband were sent to the State prison, she won his sympathy at once and at his suggestion, Col. Hill, Judge Sautley and Col. W. O. Bradley volunteered to assist in the defense. The appealing eyes of the really pretty girl, for she was not over 18, incited them to renewed efforts in her behalf and by working up the sympathies of the jury succeeded in securing the acquittal of her husband. So overcome with joy was she that she threw her arms around his neck and led him off, her every look and motion indicating that she was the happiest of happy women. Col. Welch with his accustomed kindness of heart, had in the meantime raised a little purse for her benefit, for which and for his services she was very earnest in her thanks. She is a good and true little woman and her husband, even in a lifetime of genuine effort can never repay her for her devotion to him.

GARRARD COUNTY DEPARTMENT.

Lancaster.

—Grand opening of holiday goods. The grandest feature of the display will be $3,000 worth of diamonds set in every conceivable design, pins, rings and earrings from $15 to $2,500 per pair with $10,000 worth of other goods in jewelry, silverware and fancy goods at J. C. Thompson's Jewelry House, Lancaster, Ky.

—The grandest opening will be Tuesday, Nov. 18th, day and night. The magnificent display of diamonds will be free one day only, so be sure and go and see Mr. Thompson on that day, Nov. 18. Remember the place, J. C. Thompson's Jewelry House, Lancaster, Ky.

—Positively the largest stock of Diamonds, Watches, Jewelry, Silverware and Musical Instruments of any house in Kentucky. I have the largest stock and can make you lower prices than any other house. For every $1 worth of goods you buy from now till Jan. 1st, you get chance free in a $200 Mandoline Musical Box with 16 inch cylinder. Remember the place J. C. Thompson's Jewelry House, opposite post-office, Lancaster, Ky.

—We were too indisposed to attend the Garrard celebration, Wednesday night, but the INTERIOR JOURNAL was well represented there as four from the office took a hand in it. The Lancaster people are noted for never doing anything by halves. They go the whole hog or none and in the matter of celebrating the grand victory of Cleveland and Hendricks they even outdid themselves. The business portion of town was beautifully illuminated with Chinese lanterns and other lights, and when the procession over a mile long filed through the principal streets, each man carrying a torch and yelling at the top of his voice, the scene was one that stirred the heart of the most callous observer. The procession finally halted in front of a large stand erected close to the engine house where Gov. McCreary, Col. T. P. Hill, Judge M. C. Sautley and J. A. Craft delivered rousing addresses. Col. S. M. Burdett read a resolution expressing the confidence of the meeting in the election of Cleveland and Hendricks and pledging its support to them in any emergency that may arise. A pleasing feature of the celebration was the part the ladies took in it. A bus full of them added beauty and grace to the inspiring scene. Our Valley Cornet band was highly complimented and it did, we hear, do itself great credit. The celebration was marred by no accident or row, but passed off in the most agreeable and pleasant manner.

MT. VERNON DEPARTMENT.

Managed by Jno. B. Fish.

—Since Joe Thompson walked away our jail has not a single occupant.

—Mt. Vernon now boasts of two boot and shoe shops and a butcher shop.

—Mr. John W. Brown has been confined to his room for about three weeks with inflammatory rheumatism.

—During the last few weeks our town has been flooded with commercial tourists, about 16 having been here since last Sunday morning.

—W. J. Newcomb has a pet coon, named Jim Blaine. He came out yesterday morning all draped in mourning. Suppose he had heard from New York.

—In the future I will try to make my letters more regular than they have been for several weeks. [You'd better unless you want a head put on you. Ed.]

—To-night the band, accompanied by a good crowd from this place, will attend the celebration at Crab Orchard. They have secured half fare rates for the round trip.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Maret's little daughter died this morning about 1 o'clock. She has been very sick for some time. The burial will be about 4 o'clock this (Thursday) p. m.

—The total amount of claims allowed by the Rockcastle county court was about $2,000. J. J. Williams, one of the poorhouse committee refused to serve any longer and M. J. Miller was selected in his stead. Dr. J. J. Brown will serve another year.

—Miss Amelia Gibson, of Clay county, is visiting at this place. Mr. and Mrs. M.

F. Brinkley, of Louisville, are spending a few days at F. L. Thompson's at this place. Miss May Adams was up from Stanford Sunday.

—The boys have been having a good time celebrating the election of Cleveland and Hendricks. Monday night they had the town lighted up with candles placed in every conceivable place. Bands were playing, bells were ringing and Messrs. McClure, Keppert, Williams and Singleton made speeches; altogether it was the happiest time ever experienced in Mt. Vernon.
